JUNIOR SHOWMANSHIP COMPETITION

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 2023

AM MOTHER LODE BULLDOG CLUB OF SACRAMENTO - Event #2023285901

PM MOTHER LODE BULLDOG CLUB OF SACRAMENTO - Event #2023285902

and

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 2023

AM BULLDOG CLUB OF NORTHERN CALIFORNIA - Event #2023089901

CLASSES:

Novice Class - For boys and girls who are at least 9 years old and under 18 years old on the day of the show and who at the time entries close have not won three (3) first place awards, with competition present, in a Novice Class. A first place in Novice without competition leading to a Best Junior award with competition would count as one win towards moving to Open at a licensed or member show.

Open Class - For boys and girls who are at least 9 years old and under 18 years old on the day of the show, and who have won three first place awards in a Novice Class or if a win in Novice leads to a Best Junior with competition present it will count as one win towards moving to Open in a licensed or member show. Juniors which according to their records have completed the requirements to compete in the Open class but whose status is unconfirmed by the American Kennel Club are limited to competing in the Open Class for a period of 90 days from the date of the show where the Junior completed the requirements according to their records.

Master Class - This class will be for boys and girls who are at least 9 years old and under 18 years on the day of the show, and who have 10 Best Junior wins with competition. The calendar for this class will be consistent with the eligibility dates for the AKC National Championship. All Juniors meeting the criteria for this class are required to enter the Master Class and may change their entry the day of the show if entries have already closed. Once the eligibility time frame for that year has passed all participants return to the Open Class to compete for the following year.

Each dog handled in a Junior Showmanship Class must be entered in one of the Breed or Obedience Classes at the show, or must be entered for Junior Showmanship only. However, a dog may be substituted. Such substitution must be accompanied by an official AKC entry form. All such substitutions must be made one half-hour prior to the judging of any Junior Showmanship Classes at the show. Each dog must be owned or co-owned by the Junior Handler or by the Junior Handler's father, mother, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, grandfather or grandmother, including step and half relations or by a member of the Junior Handler's household. Every dog entered for Junior Showmanship must be eligible to compete in Dog Shows or in Obedience Trials.

BITCHES IN SEASON ARE NOT ELIGIBLE. A dog that has been excused or disqualified by a Breed Judge or by a Bench Show Committee may still be handled in Junior Showmanship if eligible to compete in Obedience Trials. A dog that has been rejected, dismissed, or excused by the Veterinarian for the protection of the other dogs at the show or for the protection of the dog excused may not be handled in Junior Showmanship. Junior Handlers who win a third Novice Class with competition present after the closing of entries for a show may transfer their entry from the Novice Class to the Open Class provided that this transfer is made by the Superintendent at least one half-hour prior to the scheduled start of any regular conformation judging or one half-hour prior to the scheduled start of Junior Showmanship judging at the show, whichever is earlier. Winning of first place in an Open Class at this show may qualify or count toward qualification for entry in certain future limited Junior Showmanship Classes.

For information on eligibility requirements for limited Junior Showmanship Classes which have been approved to date by AKC go online at www.akc.org. Junior Handler's must include their AKC Junior Handler identification number on the entry blank.

You may obtain your number by calling the AKC (919) 233-9767.

Notice: Be sure all information for Junior Showmanship Classes is entered on the front and back of the entry form.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION RELATING TO COVID-19

Mother Lode Bulldog Club of Sacramento and Bulldog Club of Northern California (the "Clubs") will prioritize the health and safety of their members, exhibitors and others in attendance at these specialty shows. As such, the Clubs will enforce social distancing rules and other guidelines implemented by the Governor of California, the State Department of Public Health or other state or local government agencies in response to the Covid-19 pandemic and in force at the time of our shows. These Public Health Guidelines are subject to change at any time and could, under extreme circumstances, require the cancellation of our shows for reasons beyond the Clubs' control.

The Clubs will take actions to mitigate health risks to the best of their ability. The Clubs are pleased to be able to hold our specialty shows OUTDOORS under a very large outdoor area (approx. 20,000 sq. ft.) which will facilitate safe social distancing for exhibitors, spectators, members and our judges. Other precautions may be taken to adhere to Public Health Guidelines, including limiting the number of chairs around the show ring and requesting that attendees try to stay at least 6 ft. apart where possible. Those in attendance will be expected to wear a face covering while in the ring and at any other time they are in the arena and may be in close contact with others outside their immediate family.

The Clubs will ask our judges to allow extra time for exhibitors and their dogs to reach the ring, if necessary, to avoid crowding at ringside. The Clubs will adjust their schedule of events as necessary in response to the public health conditions in place at the time of our shows. There can be no assurance that this will change before the time of our shows. No matter what, it's our intention that everyone enjoy themselves, stay safe and make the best of it in these challenging times. While the Clubs do not, at this time, intend to restrict attendance at the shows, please be mindful of the Public Health Guidelines before you invite friends or other members of the public to attend.

Everyone entering their dogs at these specialty shows and attending the event for any reason is aware of, and accepts, any public health risks that may exist at the time and is fully responsible for the consequences of their own actions. Although the Clubs intend to follow Public Health Guidelines, they accept no responsibility, financial or otherwise, for loss, damage or injury that may occur as a result of anyone's participation of any kind in these shows.

If it should become necessary for the Clubs to cancel these shows for any reason, prior to the closing date for entries, any entry fees received will be refunded in full in a timely manner to the person that made such entries and in the form he or she made them. If the show must be cancelled after close of entries, the Clubs will retain that portion of the entry fees that are needed to offset unavoidable costs of the show and intends to refund the balance. Any fees charged for on-line entry are not refundable.

NOTICE TO EXHIBITORS - Care for the Show Site Facility is of utmost importance to the host clubs. Whenever it shall be determined that an exhibitor has caused personal property damage to the hotel or has impaired the club's ability to retain a show site, the Event Committee shall convene to conduct a preliminary investigation in accordance with AKC publication: "Dealing With Misconduct." Should the investigation find the exhibitors conduct to be prejudicial to the sport, an event hearing will be conducted. Should charges be upheld, Restitution shall immediately be made to the said hotel/motel by the violator(s).

- a. In accordance with the Rules Applying to Dog Shows, Chapter 11, Section 15, the person or persons found in violation of the hotel and AKC/BCA rules shall be asked to leave the premises immediately; and,
 - b. The exhibitor will be immediately suspended from participating in all AKC Events and the offender's name(s) shall be published in the AKC Gazette and The Bulldogger as having been found guilty in violation of said AKC/Host Club rules.
